

HEXIS AND BODYFENCE: A HISTORY OF AUTOMOTIVE PERFORMANCE AND ELEGANCE

Founded on these values, HEXIS is proud of its significant contribution, particularly in the automotive sector. BODYFENCE, HEXIS' flagship brand, embodies this passion for performance and aesthetics, offering advanced protection solutions.

HEXIS, a renowned company in the field of vehicle protection and customisation, is once again highlighting its iconic PPF brand, celebrating its ongoing commitment to the world of motorsport.

BACK TO BASICS WITH ASTON MARTIN

Think back to the glory days of HEXIS Racing (World Champion in 2011), when the team roared an Aston Martin DBR9 around the racetrack. This rich history of success and excitement remains embedded in the brand's DNA, inspiring its ongoing commitment to motoring.

Today, HEXIS and BODYFENCE are reiterating this special bond with Aston Martin by announcing the participation of Clément MATEU as a driver (bronze) in the D'Station Racing team in the World Endurance Championship (WEC).

Clément MATEU CEO HEXIS S.A.S

« HEXIS and BODYFENCE are renewing their partnership with Aston Martin, this time through the prestigious WEC championship, highlighting the 24 Hours of Le Mans. We are also proud to be associated with the famous Japanese D'station Racing team, expanding our presence in this market. With the support of FUJII and its team, we are committed to making the most of this collaboration..»

D'STATION RACING PARTNERS: HEXIS AND BODYFENCE ON THE WORLD STAGE

D'Station Racing, a Japanese team strongly engaged to motorsport competitions, can now count on our support as one of its eight partners. This collaboration significantly increases the visibility of our brands, exhibiting at nine events around the world thanks to the WEC, including a date in France with the famous 24 Hours of Le Mans, as well as at eight events in Japan with the Super GT, the two championships in which the team participates.

Tomonobu FUJII CEO

« I am very honoured to announce our partnership with HEXIS, a historic brand that is widely known in the motorsports industry for producing premium car wrapping and paint protection film. D'Station Racing will compete internationally in the FIA World Endurance Championship, 24 Hours of Le Mans, Asian Le Mans Series, GT World Challenge Asia, and the SUPER GT in Japan with HEXIS BODYFENCE as part of its global partnership campaign. Our aim is to promote our technical partner with our on-track performance around the world.»
